

Your 2022-2023 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called "verification." This process requires Ranken Technical College to compare information from your FAFSA with the information on this worksheet and with any other required documents. The law states we have the right to ask you for this information before awarding Federal Student Aid. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. Please complete this verification form and submit it to the Financial Aid Office as soon as possible. Failure to submit information in a timely manner may result in payment being owed to the College. Ranken Technical College must review the requested information under the financial aid program rules (34CFR, Part 668).

B. Instructions for Completing the 2022-2023 Income Verification Requirements

Verifying Income Reported on the FAFSA:

- There are three options available to assist students (and, if married, your spouse) with the completion of the income verification requirement. If you owe the IRS, you may not be able to utilize any of these options until your tax obligation is paid in full.
- The IRS Data Retrieval Tool (IRS DRT) is the best, easiest and most accurate option to satisfy the income verification requirements.
- Copies of W-2's for 2020 are also REQUIRED to be submitted to the school.
- Students (and, if married, your spouse) who have not filed a 2020 tax return and were not required to file a 2020 tax return must obtain a confirmation letter from the IRS verifying they did not file a tax return for 2020. For additional information, please see page 2.

Option 1: The IRS Data Retrieval Tool

Option 2: Tax Return Transcript

Option 3: SIGNED 2020 Federal 1040 (Including all Schedules)

You can use option 1 if:	You cannot use option 1 if:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You have filed your 2020 federal tax return 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Your marital status changes after December 31st of the same tax year
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You have a valid Social Security Number 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You filed "married filing separately"
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You have a FSA ID (username and password) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You are a victim of Identity Theft with the IRS

Option 1: The IRS Data Retrieval Tool

How to Use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool

1. Log into the FAFSA at studentaid.gov or the myStudentAid app using the student's FSA ID (username and password).
2. Select "APPLY FOR AID." Heading.
3. Then select "Reviewing and Correcting Your FAFSA Form."
4. Click on the "Financial Information" tab.
5. Answer the questions that determine if the IRS Data Retrieval Tool can be used. If eligible to use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool, enter your FSA ID and link to the IRS. You will be notified that you are leaving FAFSA on the web. Click "OK" to continue.
6. Enter the requested information exactly as it appears on the filed tax return. Click "Submit." If the IRS is able to validate your identification, the Federal Income Tax Information will be available to import.
7. Click "Transfer Now" and then return to the FAFSA using the link provided.
8. Once completed, continue to the "sign and submit" tab and submit your corrections.
9. Corrected FAFSA results will be submitted to your school.

Option 2: Tax Return Transcript

If you cannot use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool, choose not to use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool, or have changed your IRS data on the FAFSA since using the IRS Data Retrieval Tool, you may provide a copy of your 2020 IRS Tax Return Transcript. Copies of W-2s for 2020 are also REQUIRED to be submitted to the school.
